Description

They don't build them like this anymore. Custom built Frank Loyd Wright feel, by the Vice President of John Deere at the time. You want privacy and natural light, you have found it. Over 5200 sq ft finished. So many upgrades, here are a few. New a/c, gutter guards, new pool liner, new electrical and heater. Stone retaining wall in back. Lots of new paint. Much maintenance work complete. Every season looks so different out the wall of windows to the ravine lot! Still large flat play area. Nature and beauty everywhere. If you like to entertain this is the home for you!!
